Re: Maguire v. Edrei,
No. 18-810

Dear Mr. Harris:

We represent respondents in the above-captioned matter. The petition for a writ of certiorari was filed on December 19, 2018, following a 21-day extension. The brief in opposition is currently due on March 27, 2019, following two extensions.

We respectfully request an additional 30-day extension, which would render the brief in opposition due on April 26, 2019. We do not anticipate any further extension request. The additional time is requested due to the press of other commitments. For counsel primarily responsible for drafting the brief in opposition, those commitments include: an oral argument before the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit in Guzman Chavez v. Hott, No. 18-6086, on March 21, 2019; an oral argument before this Court in Kisor v. Wilkie, No. 18-15, on March 27, 2019; an oral argument before this Court in Smith v. Berryhill, No. 17-1606, on March 18, 2019; and an oral argument before this Court in Lamone v. Benisek, No. 18-726, on March 26, 2019.

Counsel for petitioners have not responded to a request for their position on this request. Regardless of this request, the Court will consider the petition this Term, prior to recess. Moreover, regardless of this request, if the Court chooses to grant certiorari, it will hear the matter next Term.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Paul W. Hughes
