Re: Schexnayder v. Vannoy
U.S. Supreme Court No. 18-8341

Dear Mr. Harris:

Reciprocal to and with appreciation for the blanket consent filed by Respondent on March 25, 2019, Petitioner consents to the filing of any amici curiae in support of either or neither party filed within the time limits provided by the Court's rules at any stage of these proceedings.

Petitioner also desires to draw the Court's attention to an error in his petition. Page 23, footnote 21 states: "During the relevant time period the Louisiana Fifth Circuit failed to detect errors in the cases of Reginald Adams, Glenn Davis, Ryan Matthews, Douglas Dilosa, Malcolm Alexander, Larry Delmore, Terrence Meyers, Damon Thibodeaux, and Nathan Brown" The list should not have included Reginald Adams, who was exonerated of a conviction in Orleans Parish, which parish falls within the jurisdiction of a different Louisiana Court of Appeal. The list of exonerations maintained by his law library was inaccurate, and another inmate recently brought this to his attention. He regrets the error, which also means the text accompanying footnote 21 should read: "Beyond the ~~nine~~ eight exonerations from the Cordero period"

Sincerely,

Louie Schexnayder
