

(11th Cir. 2015). Moreover, "a guilty plea is not knowingly and voluntarily made when the defendant has been misinformed about the critical elements of the - charged offense." See United States v. Brown, 117 F.3d 471, 473 (11th Cir. 1997). Petitioner's guilty plea hearing omitted this critical element of § 922(g)(1), as he was not advised that he could only be guilty of the § 922(g) offense if he knew at the time of the .. possession that he was a convicted felon. The Plea - colloquy therefore does not comport with due process and Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 11. Brown, 117 F.3d at 476-77; Fed. R. Crim. P. 11. For these reasons Petitioner's conviction should be vacated.
