Supreme Court of the United States

Re: Atlanta Gas Light Company v. Bennett Regulator Guards, Inc., No. 18-999

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for respondent in the above-captioned case, which is currently pending before this Court on a petition for a writ of certiorari. The petition was filed on January 28, 2019, and was placed on the Court's docket on January 31, 2019. After one extension, the response to the petition is due on April 1, 2019.

In accordance with this Court's Rule 30.4, I respectfully request a further extension of time, to and including May 8, 2019, in which to file the response. This extension is necessary due to the heavy press of other matters, including two oral arguments before this Court in the upcoming April sitting. The extension would also align the response deadline in this case with the deadline in Dex Media, Inc. v. Click-To-Call Technologies, LP, No. 18-916, which raises the same set of questions (and thus would permit the Court to consider the cases together).¹ This extension would still position the case for a June conference.

Counsel for petitioner has informed us that he does not oppose this request.

We appreciate your assistance.

Sincerely,

Daniel L. Geyser

¹ There is a third case (Superior Comm'cns, Inc. v. Voltstar Techs., Inc., No. 18-1027) pending before the Court that also raises the same set of questions. After the respondent in that case failed to file a waiver or a response, the Court called for a response to the petition. That response, without extension, is currently due on April 22, 2019.
