ASSOCIATION

Respondent/Appellee/Plaintiff

ATTENTION: Justice Elena Kagan

On Appeal from the United States Court of Appeals
For the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals No.18-3456

On Appeal from the Northern District of Illinois

Case No. 18 –cv-06428

Petitioner moves this Court under Supreme Court Rule 13 (5) for an extension of time to file Petitioner's Petition for Leave to File Writ of Certiorari and/or Mandamus petition

The Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals issued final appealable decision in Appeal No. 18-3456 which is attached as Exhibit 1

No. 18-3456	WESLEY TERRACE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, Plaintiff - Appellee v. CHRISTOPHER STOLLER, et al., Defendants - Appellants
Originating Case Information:
District Court No: 1:18-cv-06423 Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division Clerk/Agency Rep Thomas G. Bruton District Judge Sara L. Ellis

. The erroneous ruling Exhibit 1 in Petitioner's Seven Circuit Court of are more than just bad decisions but will result in harmful precedent that should not be ignored because it conflicts with the Illinois and Federal Constitutions prohibition against laws abridging freedom of speech and the ability of citizens to petition the government, including the courts, for the redress of grievances. Ill.Const.1970, art. I, §§ 4, 12; U.S. Const. Amd. I.

The Bill of Rights to the Illinois Constitution provides that "all persons may speak, write and publish freely," Ill.Const.1970, art. I, § 4, and that every person shall find a certain remedy in the laws for all injuries and wrongs which he receives. He shall obtain justice by law, freely, completely, and promptly," Id. § 12.

The First Amendment, applicable to the States under the Fourteenth Amendment, states that Congress shall make no law abridging freedom of speech and “the right of the people peaceably to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.” U.S. Const. Amd. I.

.Petitioner’s motion for an extension is necessary in order to obtain counsel to make his case for Leave to File a Writ of Certiorari and/or Mandamus petition.

Petition for Writ of Certiorari and/or Mandamus petition is important and useful because of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals fundamental mistake(s) of law or faulty reasoning in their opinions. The Petitioner has good reason to believe that the high court will want to correct the lower courts error(s) in favor of the Petitioner, which affects every person¹ in the United States².

Petitioner(s) are disabled. Petitioner(s) are requesting a 60 extension of time to retain counsel in their appeal to overturn the erroneous order issued by the Seven Circuit Court of Appeals. Petitioners’ appeal have merit and raises interesting questions of law, which the High Court will want to hear.
