Re: Cargill, Inc., Petitioner v. John Doe I, et al., No. 19-453, Vide 19-416

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to Rule 30.4, Respondents John Doe et al. request an eight day extension of time to December 12, 2019 to file their Brief in Opposition. The principal basis for this request is that the undersigned counsel of record's family members were killed recently, and counsel will be overseas from November 14th to November 29th attending their funerals and arranging for the future care of the children of one of these family members.

Before submitting this request, I contacted counsel for petitioner, who informed me that they consent to the extension. An eight day extension will be adequate to complete the Brief in Opposition. The same request has been made regarding the consolidated petition by Nestlé U.S.A., Inc., and counsel for Petitioner Nestlé has also consented to this extension.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul Hoffman
Counsel for Respondents
