Scott S. Harris, Clerk
Supreme Court of the United States
One First Street NE
Washington, DC 20543

Re: Joseph A. Zadeh and Jane Doe v. Mari Robinson, et al.
No. 19-676

Dear Mr. Harris:

I represent petitioner in the above-captioned case. The certiorari materials are currently scheduled for distribution on April 22, 2020.

Pursuant to this Court's order of March 19, 2020, good cause exists to delay distribution until the Court's next distribution date for paid cases, which I understand to be April 28, 2020. Given the severity of COVID-19, my firm has closed its offices until April 30, 2020, at minimum. On a personal level, I have taken sole responsibility for childcare of my two young children. In light of several competing deadlines, these obligations have substantially altered my ability to make progress with respect to the reply brief.

I therefore respectfully request that the distribution of the petition, brief in opposition, and reply be delayed to April 28, 2020, from April 22, 2020. Circulation on either date will result in the petition going to conference on May 14, 2020. I have informed respondent's counsel, but have not yet received a response.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Paul W. Hughes
