

No. 20-18

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Arthur Gregory Lange,

Petitioner,

v.

California,

Respondent.

On Writ of Certiorari
to the Court of Appeal of California,
First Appellate District

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO DISPENSE WITH PREPARATION OF A JOINT APPENDIX

Pursuant to Rule 26.8 of the Rules of this Court, petitioner Arthur Lange respectfully moves for leave to dispense with the requirement of a joint appendix in this case. The respondent and the Court-appointed amicus curiae agree that a joint appendix is not necessary.

This case presents the question whether pursuit of a person who a police officer has probable cause to believe has committed a misdemeanor, without more, categorically qualifies as an exigent circumstance sufficient to allow the officer to enter a home without a warrant. The opinions of the lower courts are included in the appendix to the petition for a writ of certiorari. In our view, no other portion of the record merits special attention such as would warrant the preparation and expense of a joint appendix, and a joint appendix would not materially assist the Court in its consideration of the case.
