Re: PHI Air Medical, LLC v. Texas Mutual Insurance Company et al., No. 20-748

Dear Mr. Harris:

We represent respondent Texas Mutual Insurance Company (“Texas Mutual”) in the above matter. Briefs in opposition to the petition for certiorari are currently due March 1, 2021.

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30.4, we respectfully request that the Court extend the time for respondents to file briefs in opposition for one week, until March 8, 2021. Texas Mutual and other respondents are located in Texas and have been adversely affected by the disaster there caused by severe winter weather beginning on February 11, 2021, which led to prolonged power outages and loss of access to heat and potable water. An additional week will allow respondents the necessary time to coordinate with one another and to review and finalize their briefs.

Counsel for petitioner PHI Air Medical, LLC, has consented to the requested extension.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Danielle Spinelli
