Re: Dolgen California, LLC v. Tricia Galarsa
SCOTUS Case No.: 21-1444

Dear Mr. Bickell:

I am counsel for respondent in the above-referenced case. On May 16, 2022, a petition for a writ of certiorari was docketed in this case. Unless extended by the Court, the response would be due on June 15, 2022. For the reasons that follow, and pursuant to Rule 30.4, I respectfully request an extension of 30 days, to and including Friday, July 15, 2022.

I have a number of concurrent pressing obligations, including a reply brief due in the California Court of Appeal during the first week of June, and a reply in support of a petition for review in the California Supreme Court due June 16. I am also moving to a new law firm beginning on June 13, which will require substantial attention, especially with respect to transferring matters. An extension will allow me to meet these obligations while preparing a response that adequately addresses the points raised in the petition.

For these reasons, I ask that an extension be granted to and including July 15, 2022. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Glenn A. Danas
