Clerk
Supreme Court of the United States
One First Street, N.E.

Re: Twitter, Inc. v. Taamneh, et al., No. 21-1496

Dear Mr. Harris:

I represent Facebook, Inc. (now known as Meta Platforms, Inc.) in this matter. Facebook, like Petitioner Twitter, Inc., was a defendant-appellee in Taamneh, et al. v. Twitter, Inc., et al., No. 18-17192 (9th Cir. June 22, 2021).

I write to notify the Court that Facebook maintains its interest in the outcome of the petition and supports granting the petition for the reasons stated therein. Should this Court grant the petition, Facebook intends to seek all available relief. See S. Ct. R. 12.6 (“All parties to the proceeding in the court whose judgment is sought to be reviewed are deemed parties entitled to file documents in this Court.”); Black v. United States, 561 U.S. 465, 468 n.1 (2010) (noting that a respondent filing a letter in support of a petitioner “qualifies for relief under this Court’s Rule 12.6”).

Respectfully submitted,

Theodore J. Boutrous Jr.

cc: Seth P. Waxman, Counsel for Petitioner Twitter, Inc.
Lisa S. Blatt, Counsel for Respondent Google LLC
Eric Schnapper, Counsel for Respondents Mehier Taamneh, et al.
