Re: City of Anaheim v. Valenzuela, No. 21-1598

Dear Mr. Harris:

Petitioner in the above-referenced matter filed its Petition for a Writ of Certiorari on June 24, 2022. Respondents' Brief in Opposition is currently due July 28, 2022. Respondents respectfully request, under Rule 30.4 of the Rules of this Court, a 60-day extension to and including September 26, 2022, within which to file the Brief in Opposition. This is Respondents' first request for an extension, and Petitioner does not oppose it.

The extension is requested because Respondents recently retained the undersigned as counsel, and the additional time is necessary to allow counsel an adequate opportunity to review the record, study the relevant case law, and prepare the brief. The undersigned counsel also has several other briefs with approaching deadlines. Moreover, we have been notified that at least one amicus brief will be filed in support of the petition, making the additional time necessary to review amici's arguments and respond to them as appropriate in the Brief in Opposition.

Thank you very much for your assistance in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Kelsi Brown Corkran
