

March 4, 2022

Honorable Scott S. Harris, Clerk of the Court
Supreme Court of the United States
One First Street, NE
Washington, DC 20543-0001

Re: No. 21-476, 303 Creative LLC v. Elenis

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30.4, Petitioners and Respondents jointly request that the time in which to file their respective briefs on the merits in the above-referenced case be extended. The Court granted the petition for writ of certiorari on February 22, 2022. Absent an extension of time, Petitioners' brief on the merits would be due on April 8, 2022, and Respondents' brief on the merits would be due on May 9, 2022. See S. Ct. R. 25.1-2.

Counsel for Petitioners and Respondents seek an extension of time in which to file their briefs on the merits due to numerous factors, including the weighty constitutional matters at issue and the press of other litigation deadlines.

Granting Petitioners' and Respondents' joint request for an extension will not prejudice the Court's ability to schedule oral argument in this case. The parties have agreed on a new briefing schedule. If the Court grants the requested extension, Petitioners' brief on the merits would be due on May 26, 2022, Respondents' brief on the merits would be due on August 12, 2022, and Petitioners' reply would be due on September 16, 2022. Ample time would still exist for the Court to schedule oral argument in the above-referenced case during the October 2022 argument session, the earliest available argument session.

For these reasons, Petitioners and Respondents jointly request that the time in which to file their briefs on the merits in this matter be extended in accordance with their proposed schedule.

Respectfully Submitted,

Kristen K. Waggoner
Kristen K. Waggoner
Counsel for Petitioners

Honorable Scott S. Harris, Clerk of the Court
March 4, 2022
Page 2

cc: Eric R. Olson
Solicitor General
Office of Attorney General
Colorado Department of Law
1300 Broadway, 10th Floor
Denver, CO 80203
eric.olson@coag.gov