PETITIONER’S APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI

To the Honorable Brett M. Kavanaugh, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and Circuit Justice for the Sixth Circuit:

Petitioner, Victor Taylor, respectfully applies to this Court for an order extending the time in which to file his petition for writ of certiorari from November 21, 2021 until December 21, 2021, a period of thirty (30) days. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §1257. In support of this Application, Mr. Taylor states as follows:

1. Mr. Taylor is incarcerated under conviction of murder for which he was sentenced to death. On August 23, 2021, the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit issued an opinion in Case No. 14-6508 (attached), wherein the en banc Court affirmed the judgment of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky in Case No. 5:06-cv-181.

2. Taylor’s case raises important questions regarding clearly established federal law as construed by this court in Batson v. Kentucky, 476 U.S. 79 (1986), and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals’ substitution of its own judgment for the state court’s judgment – seemingly in conflict with the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (AEDPA”).

2. Mr. Taylor now seeks a writ of certiorari for the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit with respect to its en banc decision. This Court’s jurisdiction to grant the same arises pursuant to 28 U.S. C. § 1254 (1).

3. According to Supreme Court Rule 13.3, a petition for writ of certiorari is due on or before November 21, 2021. See Supreme Court Rule 13.3 (“the time to file the petition for a writ of certiorari . . . runs from the date of the denial of rehearing or, if rehearing is granted, the subsequent entry of judgment”). However, the time granted by Supreme Court Rule 13 will be insufficient to allow Petitioner’s counsel to do justice to the issues at hand, which are of vast import. Therefore, Petitioner seeks an extension of thirty (30) days in which to file his petition for a writ of certiorari. See Supreme Court Rule 13.5 (“[A] Justice may extend the time to file a petition for writ of certiorari for a period not exceeding 60 days”).

4. In accordance with Supreme Court Rule 13.5, this Application is submitted at least ten (10) days prior to the present due date. Further, the requested extension is made in good faith and not for the purposes of delay. Indeed, the requested extension is made because of the vital importance associated with the issues at hand – the right to a fair and reliable sentence. This Court has repeatedly emphasized that “our duty to search for constitutional error with painstaking care is never more exacting than it is in a capital case.” Burger v. Kemp, 483 U.S. 776, 785 (1987). It is respectfully submitted that counsel’s duty to present all authorized claims of constitutional error with care is of equal import. Thus, it is important that counsel be granted additional time to prepare Mr. Taylor’s petition with the care demanded of such cases.

5. Other obligations, including on behalf of clients who have been sentenced to death, have precluded counsel from being able to direct adequate time and attention to the preparation of a petition for writ of certiorari on Petitioner's behalf. Therefore, in light of counsel's current obligations and the importance of the constitutional issues that will be presented in this capital case, counsel submit that a thirty (30) day extension is necessary and appropriate in order to effectively prepare the petition for certiorari on Mr. Taylor's behalf.

Wherefore, in the interest of justice and for good cause shown, counsel for Mr. Taylor respectfully request that this Court extend the current November 21, 2021 deadline until December 21, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Dennis J. Burke
