Re: Slack Technologies, LLC (f/k/a Slack Technologies, Inc.), et al. v. Fiyyaz Pirani
No. 22-200

To the Clerk of the Court:

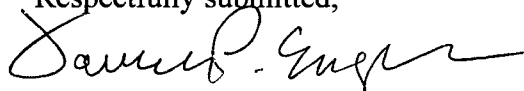

We represent Respondent, Fiyyaz Pirani (“Respondent”), in the above-referenced matter. Petitioners Slack Technologies, LLC, et al. (“Petitioners”) filed their Petition for a Writ of Certiorari (the “Petition”) on August 31, 2022, and the matter was placed on the docket on September 2, 2022. Respondent’s brief in opposition to the Petition is due on or before October 3, 2022. Pursuant to Rule 30.4 of the United States Supreme Court, we respectfully request a thirty (30) day extension of time to file a brief in opposition to the Petition, until November 2, 2022.

I will be appearing as counsel of record in this case. I am not currently a member of the Bar of this Court and acknowledge that the brief in opposition must be filed by a Bar member and anticipate filing my application for admission shortly. I, and my colleagues on this matter, Melissa A. Fortunato and Marion C. Passmore, have numerous commitments on other matters necessitating this extension request, including, but not limited to, depositions, scheduled mediation, final settlement hearings in U.S. District Courts, and multiple motions, briefs and court appearances due or scheduled during the original time period for a response.

For these reasons, we respectfully request a thirty (30) day extension of time, until November 2, 2022, to file a brief in opposition to the Petition. We have contacted counsel for Petitioners who have stated that they do not plan to oppose our thirty-day extension request.

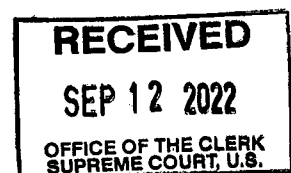

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Lawrence P. Egel
