Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for Respondents in the above-captioned case. I write pursuant to this Court's Rule 30.4 to request a 30-day extension of time to file Respondents' brief in opposition to the petition for writ of certiorari from October 14, 2022, to November 14, 2022.

The prior lead attorney for this case will be leaving the ACLU on September 23, 2022, and is thus unavailable to prepare a response. Other counsel for Respondents have also left their respective organizations since this case was before the Court of Appeals, with the result that my colleagues and I will require additional time to prepare an adequate response.

In addition, Petitioners filed blanket consent to amicus curiae briefs on September 15, 2022, and a 30-day extension of the time to file the brief in opposition will allow Respondents to review any amicus briefs filed in support of the petition and to respond to any points raised in those briefs in the brief in opposition, if necessary.

Petitioners, through counsel, have indicated that they do not oppose this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Ria Tabacco Mar
Counsel for Respondents
