Re: Yeatman v. Hyland, No. 22-566

Dear Mr. Harris:

The petition for a writ of certiorari in this case was docketed on December 20, 2022, and Respondents' briefs in opposition to the petition are presently due on February 21, 2023. Respondents Kathryn Hyland, Melissa Garcia, Jessica Saint-Paul, Rebecca Spitler-Lawson, Michelle Means, Elizabeth Kaplan, Jennifer Guth, Megan Nocerino, Elizabeth Taylor, and Anthony Church (collectively, the "Class Respondents") respectfully request a 17-day extension, to and including March 10, 2023, to file their brief in opposition to the petition.

Briefs in opposition to the petition in Carson v. Hyland, No. 22-634, are presently due on March 10, 2023. Carson arises from the same civil action as the instant petition and has been designated as related to this case. Accordingly, the present extension request would allow the Class Respondents to coordinate their briefs in opposition to the related petitions and ensure that the parties' briefing and Court's consideration of those petitions may efficiently proceed in tandem.

The original deadline for Respondents' briefs in opposition was January 19, 2023. The Class Respondents have previously requested one extension, which was granted. Petitioner William Yeatman does not oppose this request if it is the last extension requested at the certiorari stage. Respondents Richard Estle Carson III, Navient Corporation, and Navient Solutions LLC do not oppose this request.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Caitlin J. Halligan
