Re: Request for Extension of Time

Ahlmann v. Forwardline Financial, LLC, et al.
Second District Court of Appeal, Case No. B304367
Los Angeles County Superior Court, Case No. 19VECV01352
United States Supreme Court, Case No. 22-75

Dear United States Supreme Court Clerk:

Respondent, Brandon Ahlmann, through his undersigned counsel, respectfully requests a 30-day extension of time to respond to Petitioners' Forwardline Financial, LLC and Forwardline Payment Services, LLC (collectively, "Forwardline") Petition for Writ of Certiorari (the "Petition"), pursuant to Rule 30.4.

Forwardline filed their Petition on July 22, 2022, which was distributed for conference on September 7, 2022. On September 8, 2022, this Court requested that Mr. Ahlmann file a response to the Petition on or by October 11, 2022.

The handling attorney in this matter was out on family medical leave for the later-half of September, which delayed the preparation of the brief in opposition. While the brief in opposition is now complete, by the October 11, 2022 deadline, Mr. Ahlmann requests a 30-day extension to get the brief filed, in accordance with this Court's rules. Good cause exists for this 30-day extension— I was only recently admitted to the Supreme Court; today, on October 11, 2022, I received notice that my application for an Electronic Filing System account was approved; and the service I plan to use to get the brief in opposition filed, in hard copy form, informed me that it is unable to finalize and serve the brief in opposition today.

No party will be prejudiced by the extension requested herein.

Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

JUSTICE LAW CORPORATION
