

IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

CRISTIAN M. LOGA-NEGRU,
Plaintiff-Appellant,

v.

Case no. 22-cv-909-LA
Appeal no. 22-2789

MIRELA P. ZALEWSKI,
Defendant-Respondent.

MOTION FOR ENLARGING THE TIME TO FILE A BRIEF

The Plaintiff, Loga-Negru, respectfully moves the Court for an extension of time to file his brief, and pursuant to Sup. Ct. Rule 21 shows as follows:

1. The Plaintiff attended other pleadings related to his incarceration, that had shorter deadline than the current action.
2. The access to the library has been curtailed for reasons independent of this action, and most of the research has been relegated to materials available at hand.
3. Since the inception, discoveries revealed a larger scope than the first noticed impact of the arguments in relationship with the same facts. A disclaimer has not yet been made regarding the rights and privileges not asserted or consented to when the criminal proceedings started.
4. Due to the close relationship between the criminal and civil matters this action could benefit from consolidation with the corresponding constitutional issues appealed; but a difference has not been made yet.
5. Since there is another person involved, who also represents a commercial entity, words cannot be used loosely, or with no regard for their precise meanings, unless one ignores the mistakes of understanding and judgment. To avoid these errors, and:

Based on the above factors, the Plaintiff predicts that an enlargement of time from May 26 to July 24, 2023, is reasonably justified.

Respectfully submitted, this 16th day of MAY, 2023.
