RE: State of Oregon v. Committee to Recall Dan Holladay et al., Case No. 24-1026

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel for the Committee to Recall Dan Holladay, Jeana Gonzales, and Adam Marl, the respondents in this matter. I write to request a 30-day extension of time to file the brief in opposition. The brief is currently due on April 24, 2025. Granting this request would make the brief due on Tuesday, May 27, 2025.¹ Additional time is required due to a pre-scheduled spring break vacation in late March, competing deadlines in other litigation (including but not limited to significant briefs due on April 11th and 18th), and the need to thoroughly research and prepare a response to the petition in this case.

Thank you for your time and assistance in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLAMETTE LAW GROUP, PC

cc: Counsel for Petitioner and Jakob Wiley

¹ Thirty days after April 24, 2025, is Saturday, May 24th. The following Monday, May 26th, is Memorial Day. Therefore, if this request is granted, then under Supreme Court Rule 30.1 the due date for the brief in opposition will be extended to Tuesday, May 27th, which is the “next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, federal legal holiday, or day on which the Court building is closed.” Id.
