RE: Shariff Butler, et al. v. Laurel Harry, et al., Case No. 24-6311

Dear Clerk of Court,

Petitioners send this letter correspondence in order to disclose the timeliness of Petitioners' initial petition for rehearing filing by way of the disclosed postmark date of said filing being that of March 20, 2025. See Petitioners' initial Petition For Rehearing Filed with This Court. With that, said postmark substantiates Petitioners' right to the "prison mailbox rule" deemed acceptable under Houston v. Lack, 487 U.S. 266, 270-71, 108 S.Ct. 2379, 2382(1998). Petitioners assert that the "prison mailbox rule" is also to be applied to the enclosed filing dated March 15, 2025, herein. Petitioners humbly request that this said correspondence document be docketed on the record in accompaniment with Petitioners' petition for rehearing filing herein. Please return a stamped copy of this correspondence letter. Thank you and good day.
