STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On April 24, 1984 petitioner was walking in the City of Detroit Michigan On Mackinaw Street and Joy Road. Petitioner was leaving adult education school in route to work. Petitioner was stopped by City of Detroit Michigan police officers Bradford Cook and John Doe. Police officer Bradford Cook took petitioner's briefcase and threw petitioner paper work on the ground.

Petitioner was then brutally assaulted by police officer Bradford Cook. Detroit Police Officer Bradford Cook struck petitioner with his gun. The butt of the pistol struck petitioner below the left eye and the barrel of the gun struck petitioner in the left temple area causing a traumatic brain injury. Please see medical records attached in exhibit (C) in the appendix.

Petitioner was arrested taken to jail then transferred from jail to Detroit Receiving Hospital and hospitalized for one day. (Detroit Receiving Hospital was owned by the City of Detroit Michigan in 1984.)

Subsequent to release from Detroit Receiving Hospital on April 25, 1984 petitioner continued to suffer from severe headaches, back pain and abdominal pain.

About July 11, 1984 petitioner returned to Detroit Receiving Hospital medical emergency room complaining of severe headaches, back pain, and abdominal pain. Petitioner was then transferred from Detroit Receiving Hospital medical emergency room to Detroit Receiving Hospital psychiatric emergency room, diagnosed with schizophrenia paranoid delusional type and committed to Northville State Psychotic Hospital on a sixty day court order.

Prior to the brutal assault by Detroit Police on April 24, 1984, On April 20, 1983 petitioner applied for social security benefits as a beneficiary of the legal father and was approved for Social Security Supplemental Income and a medical review was scheduled in April 1984.

The medical review was conducted in 1984 at the Social Security Office at 9222 Grand River Avenue Detroit Michigan 48204. The Social Security office used the fraudulent diagnosis of schizophrenia paranoid delusional type as the as the primary disability and destroyed all initial disability evidence of severe depression, severe emotional problems, an adjustment disorder, a traumatic brain injury, work history from age eleven to age fifteen, the divorce decree of petitioner's legal mother and father, and a subpoena from the State of Alabama in a rape and murder case issued to petitioner at age ten under the name of Darryl Harris.

The City of Detroit Michigan, Wayne County Michigan, The State of Michigan, the State of Alabama and the United States Government acted under color of law to violate petitioner's United States Constitutional Rights further violating Title 42 USC Section 1983.

The City of Detroit Michigan, Wayne County Michigan, The State of Michigan the State of Alabama and the United States Government conspired to violate petitioner's Constitutional Rights further violating Title 42 USC

Section 1985.

The City of Detroit Michigan, Wayne County Michigan, the State of Michigan, the State of Alabama and the United States Government is in possession of a preponderance of evidence in favor of petitioner and neglected to prevent violations of constitutional rights further violating Title 42 USC Section 1986.

Petitioner is a disabled individual, petitioner have requested auxiliary and legal assistance from Disability Rights of Michigan, the State of Michigan, the State of Alabama, and the United States Government and have been grossly denied. The respondents in the matter have further violated Title 42 USC Section 12101 and 12102 of the AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT.

The respondents in the matter further violated petitioner FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO, DUE PROCESS OF LAW, PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES.

REASON FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

1. This case will help stop child abuse and neglect, elder abuse and neglect, disabled abuse and neglect and force Government Officials to make decisions based on the facts in the case and not their POLITICAL BELIEF.

2. From 1986 until 2010 the respondents destroyed the evidence and claimed the incident between petitioner and respondents never occurred.
In 2010 petitioner discovered the arrest report and medicals in Federal Court file 88-72503 Darrell Marshall VS. City Of Detroit et; al.;
