It is my opinion that a person who chooses a life of crime, even if drug induced, or in a moment of passion, should have to pay for wrongdoing. A message must be sent to those who commit violent crimes.

If someone does a serious crime then maybe they deserve the death sentence, but how can you be sure it's the right thing to do if there are no witnesses to the crime? Or no proof?

Innocent people sometimes pay for someone else's crime.

30. Is there any other information you believe might be important for the Court or for the lawyers to know about you as a potential juror? I can't judge anyone. I can't listen to information from someone else and find someone guilty if I don't know them or see them do the crime.

My church will be voting on a resolution (Feb. 4) for the Diocese of MS to stand against the death penalty & vote for life in prison, instead. I will be curious to see the outcome of the election.

30. Is there any other information you believe might be important for the Court or for the lawyers to know about you as a potential juror?

If this trial is to find Terry Pitchford or the Westmoreland young man's guilt or innocence, you may need to know Terry was my student in 5th grade and two representatives from "Capital Defense" came to my room, Fri., 1/20/06, to discuss his time in my class.
