Re.: Lloyd v. Morton
Doc. 18-CV-6979 / 23-357

Dear Court Clerk;

I am writing the court to request an extension of time to file my writ of certiorari. My criminal case is in New York State and my litigation is under federal habeas corpus in the U.S. Court of Appeals of the Second Circuit. As you may already be aware the New York State Department of Corrections in February 2025 under went a State emergency due to an illegal strike on the part of correctional officers. The Governor consequently ordered the National Guards to man the prisons throughout New York State. Eastern Correctional Facility was under a twenty one day shut down. The normal available access to the law library material research and preparation was interfered. The facility is still under staffed and substituted by the national guards to date.

I recently understand access to the law library has resume to normal call out scheduling. Due to such circumstances suffered by the statewide facility shut down ask the court to extend the 90 day time limit to file my writ.

Respectfully submitted,
