Sheriff's Office
Respondents

Appeal Court, 24-6442

Casett

Motion in Affidavit for extension of time to file a writ of certiorari and Affidavit
IN Support of INFRA
Petitioner

Petitioner, move with motion in affidavit for extension of time of 20 days to respond and file for a writ of certiorari. For the following reasons, during the pendency of this case, the court of appeals dismissed the case on December 18th 2024. During this time defendants co-workers, Michael Crumley, major of B.C.S.O transferred petitioner to Dorchester County Jail. The same day the court dismissed the case. Petitioner, found out the case was dismissed January 9th 2025. Petitioner wrote the court of appeals January 10th 2025 and filed a out of time petition due to the deadline passing and not being notified by defendants that the case was dismissed despite defendants transferring petitioner to Dorchester County Jail, though petitioner never was charged in Dorchester County or ever having any relation with Dorchester County.
Petitioner was released from B.C.S.O Jail on February 14th 2025 during those times, Plaintiff was released with in society, with No home to go to or no support, Petitioner. Is writing this court under Duress and request a extension of time to file a writ of certiorari of 30 days as he go through the process of readjusting himself back into society, no job, and is instigating seeking a place to stay and a job. Petitioner is unable to make 40 copies of each petition to be filed due to his release from incarceration of the county jail.
