

In the Supreme Court of the United States

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE,
Petitioner,

v.

MI FAMILIA VOTA, ET AL.,
Respondents.

On Writ of Certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO DISPENSE WITH PREPARATION OF A JOINT APPENDIX

In accordance with Rule 26.8 of this Court, Petitioner respectfully seeks leave to dispense with the requirement of a joint appendix in this case. No party opposes dispensing with the joint appendix: All Respondents who filed briefs at the certiorari stage* agree that a joint appendix is not necessary. The State of Arizona and Arizona Attorney General (Petitioners in No. 25-1022 and Respondents here), as well as the Arizona Legislative Leaders (Petitioners in No. 25-1019 and Respondents here) all agree that a joint appendix is not necessary. All other Respondents have either indicated they do not oppose dispensing with the joint appendix or have not responded with their position at the time of this filing.

* Respondents who filed briefs in response to the Petition are the United States; the Mi Familia Vota Plaintiffs; the Democratic Party Plaintiffs; and the LUCHA Plaintiffs.

This case presents two questions: (1) whether the National Voter Registration Act or a federal consent decree prohibit Arizona from requiring voter-registration applicants to produce “satisfactory evidence” of U.S. citizenship when registering with a state registration form, and (2) whether the National Voter Registration Act prohibit Arizona from implementing a program within 90 days of a federal election to cancel the registrations of voters who are not U.S. citizens. The court of appeals’ opinion, the district court’s opinions, and the court of appeals’ order denying rehearing en banc (and the opinions accompanying that order) are appended to the petition for a writ of certiorari. In Petitioner’s view, no other portion of the record merits special attention such as would warrant the preparation and expense of a joint appendix, and preparation of a joint appendix would not materially assist this Court’s consideration of this case.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Gilbert C. Dickey
