

CERTIFICATION OF WORD COUNT

(The Supreme Court of the United States – Rule 33.1(g)

and Rule 14.5)

Case Caption: Marian Anthony v. Corina Galvez (No.

_____)

I, Marian A. Anthony, Petitioner appearing propria persona, sui juris, hereby certify pursuant to Supreme Court Rules 33.1(g) and 14.5 as follows:

1. The foregoing Petition for a Writ of Certiorari (from the cover page through the last page of the Conclusion, excluding the cover page, Questions Presented, List of Parties, Corporate Disclosure Statement, Related Proceedings, Table of Contents, Table of Authorities, Citations of Opinions, Basis for Jurisdiction, Constitutional and Statutory Provisions Involved, signature block, and Appendix) contains 2,740 words, including headings, footnotes, and quotations.

2. This word count was generated using Microsoft Word 365 (Version 2410), which counts all text in the specified sections in accordance with the method approved by this Court.
3. This total is within the 9,000-word limit prescribed by Rule 33.1(g) for petitions for writ of certiorari filed in booklet format.

I understand that a materially false or misleading certification may subject the undersigned to sanctions by this Court.

Executed on this 20th day of January 2026
at Escondido, California.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Marian Anthony
