Re: Gopher Media, LLC et al. v. Melone et al., No. 25-1067

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for Respondents Andrew Melone and American Pizza Manufacturing in the above-captioned matter. Pursuant to Rule 30.4, I am writing to request a 30-day extension of time to file Respondents' brief in opposition to certiorari.

The petition for certiorari was docketed on March 6, 2026, after Petitioners received a 60-day extension. The deadline for Respondents to oppose the petition is April 9, 2026. If the requested extension of time is granted, Respondent's brief in opposition would be due on May 11, 2026. Counsel of record for Petitioners has consented to this request for extension of time.

Respondents respectfully request this extension due to the heavy press of other matters. The attorneys handling this case have ongoing obligations across multiple matters. Among those obligations, I am preparing a closing brief for a bench trial that recently concluded in March 2026 in Orange County Superior Court, I have been preparing for a two-week jury trial that was set to begin on April 6, 2026, in Los Angeles County Superior Court (continued by the court today, April 2, 2026), and preparing for a multi-day arbitration in San Diego set to begin in May 2026, among other heavy motion work.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Owen M. Praskievicz
