MOTION FOR LEAVE TO DISPENSE WITH PREPARATION OF A JOINT APPENDIX

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 26.8, AT&T, Inc. and Verizon Communications Inc. respectfully seek leave to dispense with the requirement of a joint appendix in these consolidated and realigned cases. The Solicitor General, on behalf of the Federal Communications Commission, agrees that a joint appendix is unnecessary in this case and has consented to the filing of this motion.

The question presented in these cases is whether the Communications Act violates the Seventh Amendment and Article III by authorizing the FCC to order the payment of monetary penalties for failing to reasonably safeguard customer data, without guaranteeing the defendant carrier a right to a jury trial. The appendices to the petitions for writs of certiorari include all of the relevant lower court opinions and agency orders. The parties do not believe that any other portion of the records in these cases merits special attention that would warrant the preparation and expense of a joint appendix, and preparation of a joint appendix would not materially assist the Court's consideration of these cases.

For the foregoing reasons, the motion to dispense with the requirement of a joint appendix should be granted.
