RE: National Association for Gun Rights, et al. v. Lamont, et al., No. 25-421

Dear Mr. Harris:

The Court docketed the petition in this case on October 3, 2025. The brief in opposition is currently due on December 8, 2025.

I respectfully request, under Rule 30.4 of the rules of this Court, a thirty-five-day extension of time, to and including January 11, 2025, to file the Respondents' response. This is the Respondents' second requested extension.

Though Respondents have completed necessary research and have begun drafting the response, this extension is necessary because Assistant Attorney General Janelle Mederios, who is assigned to draft the brief in opposition, requires additional time to draft the brief. AAG Mederios serves as Special Counsel for Civil Rights and has previously scheduled deadlines in other time-sensitive matters in the federal and state courts. AAG Medeiros is also lead counsel for Connecticut on several pending civil rights investigations, multistate actions, and internal matters. Finally, I and other supervisors in the Office of the Attorney General will need to review and edit the brief, necessitating the requested extension.

This extension also would align the briefing schedule in this case with a related case. Plaintiffs in the related matter of Grant v. Lamont, et. al., No. 23-1162 (2d Cir.) – which the Second Circuit related to this case and decided in the same opinion Petitioners challenge – recently filed a petition for review on largely the same issues raised here. See Grant, et. al., v. Higgins, et. al., No. 25-556. Respondents seek a thirty-day extension of time in the Grant matter, such that their brief in opposition to the Grant petition will be due January 11, 2026. Granting the requested extension here would serve judicial economy by allowing the Court to simultaneously consider both petitions.

Respondents request this extension of time in good faith and solely to prepare the response. The requested extension will not result in undue delay.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Michael K. Skold
