Re: National Association for Gun Rights, et. al v. Lamont, et. al, No. 25-421

Dear Mr. Harris:

This letter is submitted pursuant to Rule 15.8 to alert the Court of new developments that may bear on this Court's consideration of the Petition in this case. We write to notify the Court of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals' order in United States v. Benson, No. 23-CF-0514 (Apr. 22, 2026). On March 11, 2026, Petitioners filed a supplemental brief advising the Court of the D.C. Court of Appeals' opinion in Benson v. United States, No. 23-CF-0514, 2026 WL 628772 (D.C. Mar. 5, 2026), contending that the opinion created a circuit split on the constitutionality of laws restricting the possession of large capacity magazines. But that opinion has been vacated.

The D.C. Court of Appeals' April 22nd order grants the District of Columbia's petition for rehearing en banc and vacates the panel's opinion holding that the District's prohibition on firearm magazines holding more than ten rounds violates the Second Amendment. See 2026 WL 628772 (D.C. Mar. 5, 2026). A copy of the order is attached.

We would appreciate it if you could circulate this letter so that the Court will be aware of this new information when it considers the petition.

Very truly yours,

/s/Michael K. Skold

TYREE BENSON,

Appellant,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Appellee,

and

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,

Intervenor-Appellee.

2022-CF2-005996

BEFORE: Blackburne-Rigsby, Chief Judge, and Beckwith, Easterly, McLeese, Deahl, Howard, and Shanker, Associate Judges.

ORDER

On consideration of intervenor-appellee District of Columbia's petition for rehearing en banc; and it appearing that a majority of the judges of this court has voted to grant the petition for rehearing en banc, it is ORDERED that intervenor-appellee District of Columbia's petition for rehearing en banc is granted and the opinion and judgment of March 5, 2026, are hereby vacated. It is FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk shall schedule this matter for argument before the court sitting en banc as soon as the calendar permits. Oral argument time shall not exceed 45 minutes per side. It is

No. 23-CF-0514

FURTHER ORDERED that appellant shall file a brief within 30 days from the date of this order; appellee and intervenor-appellee shall file responsive briefs within 30 days after filing of appellant's opening brief; and any reply brief shall be filed within 21 days thereafter. Any amicus brief shall be filed within 7 days of the opening brief of the party it supports. These new briefs shall be specifically designed for consideration by and addressed to the en banc court and shall supersede all briefs previously filed in this appeal. The parties should focus their briefs on the following issues:

- (1) Whether the District's ban on firearm magazines capable of holding "more than 10 rounds of ammunition" violates the Second Amendment, either facially or as applied, and, if so, which of appellant's convictions should be reversed as a result of that constitutional infirmity; and
- (2) Whether the District's licensing and registration requirements violate the Second Amendment.
