Clerk of the Court
Supreme Court of the United States

RE: Federal Bureau of Investigation, et al. v. Yassir Fazaga, et al.
No. 25-430

Dear Mr. Harris:

Respondents Yassir Fazaga, Ali Uddin Malik, and Yasser Abdelrahim respectfully request a 60-day extension of the time to respond to Petitioners' petition for writ of certiorari, pursuant to Rule 30.4 of the rules of this Court. Petitioners consent to a 30-day extension, but oppose any beyond 30 days.

Justice Kagan previously granted Petitioners' application for a 60-day extension to file their petition. The Court docketed the petition on October 8, 2025, making the current deadline for the response November 7, 2025. With a 60-day extension, the deadline for Respondents' brief would be January 6, 2026.

This is Respondents' first request for an extension of time.

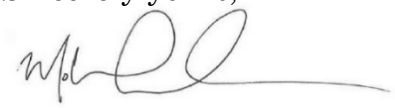

Respondents request the extension because of their counsel's significant obligations in other matters over the next two months. In this Court, certain counsel representing Respondents are preparing to file a response to the Government's petition for certiorari before judgment in Trump v. Barbara, No. 25-365, by October 29, and to file merits briefing West Virginia v. B.P.J., No. 24-23, and Little v. Hecox, No. 24-38, by November 10. Additionally, undersigned counsel is lead trial counsel in Vasquez Perdomo v. Noem, No. 2:25-cv-05605-MEMF-SP (C.D. Cal.), where the parties anticipate briefing dispositive motions and conducting extensive court-ordered discovery over the next three months, and counsel for appellees in Los Angeles Press Club v. Noem, No. 25-5975 (9th Cir.), whose response brief is due on November 18, 2025. In addition, attorneys representing Respondents in this appeal are also counsel in other cases in active briefing, including NTPSA v. Noem (NTPSA I), No. 25-5724 (9th Cir.), where counsel in this case must file a response brief at the
