JOSEPH LEE BETANCOURT, PETITIONER

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

____

ON PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI
TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNITED STATES IN OPPOSITION

_____

Petitioner contends (Pet. 5-14) that 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(1) violates the Second Amendment on its face and as applied to him. For the reasons set out in the government's brief opposing certiorari in French v. United States, 145 S. Ct. 2709 (2025), the contention that Section 922(g)(1) is facially unconstitutional does not warrant this Court's review. See ibid. (denying certiorari). As the government explained in French, that contention plainly lacks merit, and every court of appeals to consider the issue since United States v. Rahimi, 602 U.S. 680 (2024), has determined that the statute has at least some valid applications. See Br. in Opp. at 3-6, French, supra (No. 24-6623).

Similarly, for the reasons set out in the government's brief opposing certiorari in Vincent v. Bondi, No. 24-1155 (Aug. 11, 2025), the contention that Section 922(g)(1) violates the Second Amendment as applied to petitioner does not warrant this Court's review. Although there is some disagreement among the courts of appeals regarding whether Section 922(g)(1) is susceptible to individualized as-applied challenges, that disagreement shallow. See Br. in Opp. at 11-14, Vincent, supra (No. 24-1155). This Court has previously denied plenary review when faced with similarly narrow disagreements among the circuits about the availability of as-applied challenges to Section 922(g)(1). id. at 13-14. And any disagreement among the circuits may evaporate given the Department of Justice's recent reestablishment of the administrative process under 18 U.S.C. 925(c) for granting relief from federal firearms disabilities. See Br. in Opp. at 8-11, Vincent, supra (No. 24-1155).

Moreover, Section 922(g)(1) does not raise any constitutional concerns as applied to petitioner. Petitioner was arrested in this case after threatening to shoot his brother during an argument and brandishing a firearm in the direction of his brother, his brother's then-pregnant girlfriend, and their infant daughter. Presentence Investigation Report (PSR)  $\P$  8. Petitioner had also sustained two previous felony convictions for aggravated assault after causing a major vehicular collision. PSR ¶¶ 38-39. Accordingly, the court of appeals recognized that petitioner's asapplied challenge "must fail" because he poses a threat to public safety. Pet. App. 6a-7a; accord, e.g., United States v. Williams, 113 F.4th 637, 659 (6th Cir. 2024) (recognizing Section 922(g)(1)'s constitutionality as applied to those convicted of "assault").

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be denied.*

Respectfully submitted.
