CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

I believe the letters that I submitted to the Court were read with prejudice of me stating that unemployment had to have some prejudice and discrimination towards me. I am owed all monies from both of my cases from unemployment. My unemployment claim history would show this. I believe the courts ignored my cases. Please read the two letters I wrote to both courts explaining my case. Please look at all the evidence that I have submitted. Also I checked my unemployment dashboard and saw that they have now cancelled the overpayment. Fully repayed and cancelled are two different things. If it is fully repayed a negative of seven dollars should not be there or if it is cancelled a seven dollar balance should not be there. I feel like they have now falsified documents and now covering their wrong doings this is an injustice. I am owed the over payment and benefits. And I got no notice of the cancelled over payment. If I give false information to unemployment there would be imprisonment and a fine for me to pay. But if unemployment falsifies documents theres no consequences.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Terisha Rooney
