

No. 25 - 6149

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

BYRON JONES,

Petitioner,

v.

PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN,

Respondent.

---

CERTIFICATE OF GOOD FAITH

NOW COMES, Petitioner, Byron Jones, and makes certification that his petition for rehearing is presented to this Court in good faith pursuant to Rule 44. Mr. Jones further states the following:

1. This Court entered its judgment denying petitioner a Writ of Certiorari on January 20, 2026. Petitioner believes that he presents this Court with adequate grounds to justify the granting of rehearing in this case and said petition is brought in good faith and not for delay. Furthermore, petitioner believes that based upon the law of this Court and facts of this case, Mr. Jones is entitled to relief which has been unjustly denied to him. Petitioner further believes that if the First District Circuit Court of Appeals are continually allowed to apply the Barker, Strickland & Hampton standard improperly, a number of people will be denied their constitutional right to due process.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
