QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

- 1) The Trial Courts refusal to permit Mr. Peña to discharge retained counsel without balancing his right to counsel and the interests of Justice Violated the U.S. const Sixth amend and the Washington Constitution article I Section 22.
- 2) The trial courts disregard to inquire into clear evidence of an irreconcilable conflict between Defendant and his previously "paid" attorney Violated Mr Peña's right to representation without conflict or effective assistance of Counsel.
- 3) Appellate counsels plain error or failure to raise meritorious issues involving the presumptively prejudicial denial of counsel left Mr Peña without effective assistance of aggressive counsel on the direct appeal
- 4) When the State courts abuse their discretion and rubber stamp pleadings of meritorious Claims affirmed by "Unpublished" opinions leaving a Pro-se litigant helpless in any court because the "AEDPA" appears to be constantly abused by the federal district Courts, as example the blatant disregard for 2254 Rule 8.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Mr. Peña's family originally paid for and obtained Counsel on the Defendants behalf, after suffering with un professional behavior such as Lack of communication or even explaining what process or product she planned to provide, ACTUALLY she did disclose that her skill was Immigration law not criminal.

Mr Peña informed the court and moved to fire or unemploy Counsel, but was unable to pay for more or different service, then the Court appointed the under qualified, conflicted Counsel forcing counsel to labor under the Conflicted interests, On direct Appeal the attorney appointed by the court "ignored" these issues forcing Mr Peña to raise pro-se on post-conviction but apparently the state of Washington has an illusive process and very few pro-se litigants enjoy their right to be "Heard and determined on the merits to Command Judicial review" but rather get "Rubber stamped" while the federal district Courts seem to play along despite their Constitutional duty.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

1) The decision of the state court of appeals is in conflict with precedent of the U.S. Supreme Court.

2) The decision of the State Court of appeals is in conflict with Published opinions of the Same Court.

3) This case involves a significant question of law under the United States Constitution, and the "AEDPA" seems to block any review by §2254
* Current Library Case law shows "rubber stamping" of State opinions without respect for 2254 Rule 8

4)

4) This petition involves issues of substantial public interest, oppressive prosecutions, that should be determined by the Supreme Court of the United States.

* Scrivenor's statement:

I Clay Vinson Haynes, have read, reviewed and had the help of Bi Lingual inmate to assist Mr Peña in writing this document
I, believe all the presentation is a true representation of Mr Peña's posture on his case, affirmed 18 U.S.C. § 1621
28 U.S.C. § 1746

08-31-2025

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: 8/31/2025
