*Evidence (filed 1517 pages)

LEGAL BACKGROUND

Petitioner hereby demands the Supreme Court to attach the original 38 pages Petition for a Writ of Certiorari, Forma Pauperis etc. along with the Petition for Rehearing. Due to miscarry justice, wrongful judgment, failure to implement the law, failure to resolve controversial issues, failure to correct errors etc., petitioner demands the Supreme Court to reverse justice and approve the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari.

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 44 Rehearing.

2.”Any petition for the rehearing of an order denying a petition for a writ of certiorari or extraordinary writ shall be filed within 25 days after the date of the order of denial and shall comply with all the form and filing requirements of paragraph 1 of this Rule, including the payment of the filing fee under Rule 38(b) in any case in which the filer paid the filing fee under Rule 38(a), but its grounds shall be limited to intervening circumstances of a substantial or controlling effect or to other substantial grounds not previously presented. The time for filing a petition for the rehearing of an order denying a petition for a writ of certiorari or extraordinary writ will not be extended. The petition shall be presented together with certification of counsel (or of a party unrepresented by counsel) that it is restricted to the grounds specified in this paragraph and that it is presented in good faith and not for delay; one copy of the certificate shall bear the signature of counsel (or of a party unrepresented by counsel). The certificate shall be bound with each copy of the petition. The Clerk will not file a petition without a certificate. The petition is not subject to oral argument”. 3. The Clerk will not file any response to a petition for rehearing unless the Court requests a response. In the absence of extraordinary circumstances, the Court will not grant a petition for rehearing without first requesting a response”. 4. The Clerk will not file consecutive petitions and petitions that are out of time under this Rule”.

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 20 Procedure on a Petition for an Extraordinary Writ.

1. “Issuance by the Court of an extraordinary writ authorized by 28 U. S. C. § 1651(a) is not a matter of right, but of discretion sparingly exercised. To justify the granting of any such writ, the petition must show that the writ will be in aid of the Court’s appellate jurisdiction, that exceptional circumstances warrant the exercise of the Court’s discretionary powers, and that adequate relief cannot be obtained in any other form or from any other court”.

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 12.5

“No more than 30 days after a case has been placed on the docket, a respondent seeking to file a conditional cross petition (i.e., a cross-petition that otherwise would be untimely) shall file, with proof of service as required by Rule 29, It is the cross-petitioner’s duty to notify all cross-respondents promptly, on a form supplied by the Clerk, of the date of filing, the date the cross-petition was placed on the docket, and the docket number of the cross-petition. The notice shall be served as required by Rule 29. A cross-petition for a writ of certiorari may not be joined with any other pleading, except that any motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis shall be attached. The time to file a conditional cross-petition will not be extended”.

Supreme Court Rule 10. “A petition for a writ of certiorari is rarely granted when the asserted error consists of erroneous factual findings or the misapplication of a properly stated rule of law”.

WAIVER. A Waiver occurs when an individual or party knowingly and voluntarily relinquishes a legal right they are entitled to enforce whether constitutional, statutory, or contractual in nature.

29 C. F. R. 1614.501 (remedies & relief).When an agency, or the Commission, in an individual case of discrimination, finds that an applicant or an employee has been discriminated against, the agency shall provide full relief.

On November 3, 2025 within 90 days of the Judgment issued by the U.S. Court of Appeal for DC circuit, petitioner filed a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari (38 pages) along with Motion for Leave to Proceed Forma Pauperis, Appendix (including current U.S. District Court and U.S. Court of Appeals docket sheets), Proof of Service. One original plus two copies.

On December 5, 2025 petitioner never received a cross-petition from the Respondents (M & T bank et.al.) within 30 days from the initial filing date November 3, 2025. The time to file a conditional cross-petitioner will not be extended (Rule 12.5).

On February 27, 2026, petitioner filed a “Distributed Conference” along with 174 pages of essential evidence plus extra current District Court & Appellate Court docket sheets. Petitioner also filed an Order to Subpoena the 1517 pages Evidence as supporting documents.

On March 2, 2026 the Supreme Court denied the original Petition for a Writ of Certiorari (Supreme Court Case No. 25-6475 “May Chen v. Manufacturers & Traders Trust Company et.al”.) without any applicable law, facts, evidence etc. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 44, petitioner hereby files the Petition for Rehearing within 25 days from the date of the denial along with a signed Certificate of Unrepresented Counsel. The petition is not subject to oral argument.

The Clerk will not file any response to a petition for rehearing unless the Court requests a response (Extraordinary Writ was filed in the original Petition for a Writ of Certiorari and Petition for Rehearing). The Clerk will not file consecutive petitions and petitions that are out of time under this Rule.

According to the original Petition under the section Statement of the Facts, the Court illegally denied the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari without applicable legal authority and

ARGUMENT

I. Failure to file cross-petition (Rule 12.5)

On December 3, 2025 petitioner never received a cross-petition from the Respondents (M & T bank et.al.) within 30 days from the initial filing date November 3, 2025. The time to file a conditional cross-petitioner will not be extended (Rule 12.5). The Court should not consider any claim from the Respondents due to no cross-petition.

II. WAIVER filed by Respondents

On January 29, 2026 and February 3, 2026 there were two WAIVERS filed by Capital One Bank's legal representative – Troutman Pepper Locke LLP (Ms. Elizabeth H. Andrews) and Bank of America's legal representative – McGuireWoods LLP (Ms. Melissa O. Martinez). (see court documents).

Manufacturers & Traders Trust Company (M & T Bank) was an Unauthorized Foreign Business Corporation and showing inactive status since December 27, 2006 based on the Secretary of State business entity's registration (Doc 3453851; 3673513; 3672424).

As such, M & T Bank, Capital One Bank, Bank of America should return my deposit $109400.82 immediately plus all applicable claims. (M & T Bank $29822.61; Capital One Bank $58938.55; Bank of America $9889.66; rent payment checks $750. Property damages $15000000 returned checks fees and late fees $750, overdraft fee $36, unpaid promotional bonus $5000, monthly fee $180 ($15/month), long-term anger, anxiety, trauma, pain, loss of earnings: interest, investment, etc.

On September 28, 2023, another WAIVER was filed by the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia by representing the MPD, District of Columbia, Judges, Officer Bryant, A; Cobb, C; Stephen Franchak, Suzie Stears, English, Homere Whyte. However. However, Cobb, C et.al. continue to issue wrongful parking tickets against the law without any proof in 2023, 2024, 2025. As such, I was not able to renewal vehicle registration at DC DMV in 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025 because of the initial two wrongful parking tickets issued by Bryant, A ($550) against the law: DC Code 50-2303.11 (g)(b), 50-2303.05 (a)(2)(E), 50-2303.06, 50-2303.03 without notification of hearing rights. On August 6, 2025 Blue Plains Auto Impound Lot illegally impounded my vehicle without five days' notice per DC Code 50-2455. It caused vehicle damages and immediate housing issues. I filed another Supreme Court case 23-5501 in June 2023 accusing the subject of predatory activities.

III. Failure to implement the law, misapply the law (F. R. C. P. Rule 55 etc..)

Pursuant to F. R. C. P. Rule 55 (a) ENTERING A DEFAULT. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, and that

IV. Failure to correct lower court errors, failure to resolve controversial issues

Because of failure to correct the lower court errors, failure to resolve controversial issues, escalation of grievances, miscarry justice, Petitioner experienced immediate life-threatening circumstances especially caused by housing and employment matters.

For example: Per 29 C.F.R. 1614.501; F. R. C. P. rule 55 etc., EEOC et.al. must pay $57000000000000 USD default judgment based on the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari filed in August 2024, also employment discrimination continually caused aging, loss of earnings, non - human living conditions, loss of family reunion, loss of working experience & promotion, advanced education.

Housing discrimination: Not only loss of out-of-pocket expenses and market appreciation $560000 (Newasa Ln) and $850000 (Outrigger), but also continually experienced loss of $13000/year housing voucher assistance, homeless $2500000/year, family support, racial retaliation, abuse, humiliation, further intentional harm from police and local entities.

Out-of-pocket expenses, potential, future expenses.

V. Reverse Justice.

Pursuant to the Supreme Court Rule 20, petitioner hereby strongly requests the reversal of the denial decision issued on March 2, 2026 by the Clerk of the Court without any applicable law, facts, evidence to support therein. Accordingly, petitioner strongly demands the Supreme Court to approve the original Petition for a Writ of Certiorari (38 pages) et.al.

CONCLUSION

The court should grant the Petition for Rehearing, consider this petition together with original Petition for a Writ of Certiorari (38 pages), Motion to Leave for Forma, Pauperis et.al, evidence, court docket sheets, Request to Enter Default Judgment, Brief, Motions, Emergency Motion filed in a timely manner and in correct court procedures.

Respectfully Submitted,
May Chen (petitioner) MC
