I have had issues passing a background check which is required by most employers. Since I have had issues obtaining employment my child support has gone unpaid and because of that my license was suspended and I had to sell my only vehicle to catch up on my electric and water bills. I live in a small town of 500 and there just aren't any jobs in this town. I don't have the money to move, my house is paid for which is the only thing helping me right now.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
