Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
USDC No. 4:24-CR-256-1

Before CLEMENT, RICHMAN, and WILLETT, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Daniel Carlos-Ramos appeals his sentence for illegally reentering the United States after he was deported, in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326. That statute carries a maximum sentence of two years of imprisonment and one year of supervised release. Id. § 1326(a); 18 U.S.C. § 3583(b)(3). But because Carlos-Ramos was previously removed after being convicted of multiple non-aggravated felonies, he faced a maximum sentence of ten years of imprisonment and three years of supervised release. 8 U.S.C. § 1326(b)(1); 18 U.S.C. § 3583(b)(2). The district court sentenced him to sixteen months of imprisonment followed by three years of supervised release. On appeal, Carlos-Ramos argues that his three-year supervised release sentence violates the Fifth and Sixth Amendments because his sentence was enhanced based on prior felony convictions that were neither alleged in the indictment nor mentioned in his guilty plea.

Carlos-Ramos correctly concedes that his argument is foreclosed by Almendarez-Torres v. United States, 523 U.S. 224 (1998), but he wishes to preserve it for further review. See United States v. Pervis, 937 F.3d 546, 553–54 (5th Cir. 2019); see also Erlinger v. United States, 602 U.S. 821, 838 (2024) (explaining that Almendarez-Torres “persists as a narrow exception permitting judges to find only the fact of a prior conviction” (cleaned up)). The only issue before us is foreclosed by precedent, and “there can be no substantial question as to the outcome of the case.” Groendyke Transp., Inc. v. Davis, 406 F.2d 1158, 1162 (5th Cir. 1969). We therefore GRANT the Government’s unopposed motion for summary affirmance, and we DENY AS MOOT its alternative motion for an extension of time to file a merits brief. The judgment of the district court is AFFIRMED.

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant, DANIEL CARLOS-RAMOS, is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) to be imprisoned for a term of Sixteen (16) months as to Count One of the Indictment filed on October 9, 2024. This sentence shall run consecutively to any future sentence which may be imposed in Case No. 1838139, before the Criminal District Court No. 3, Tarrant County, Texas, as it is unrelated to the instant offense.

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be incarcerated at FMC Fort Worth, or alternatively at a facility as close to the Dallas/Fort Worth, TX area as possible.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of Three (3) years as to Count One of the Indictment filed on October 9, 2024.

As a condition of supervised release, upon the completion of the sentence of imprisonment, the defendant shall be surrendered to a duly-authorized immigration official for deportation in accordance with the established procedures provided by the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 USC § 1101 et seq. As a further condition of supervised release, if ordered deported or removed, the defendant shall remain outside the United States.

In the event the defendant is not deported immediately upon release from imprisonment, or should the defendant ever be within the United States during any portion of the term of supervised release, the defendant shall also comply with the standard conditions contained in the Judgment and shall comply with the mandatory and special conditions stated herein:

- 1) The defendant shall report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where he or she is authorized to reside within 72 hours of release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs the defendant to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame;
- 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, the defendant will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when to report to the probation officer, and the defendant shall report to the probation officer as instructed;
- 3) The defendant shall not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where he or she is authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer;
- 4) The defendant shall answer truthfully the questions asked by the probation officer;
- 5) The defendant shall live at a place approved by the probation officer. If the defendant plans to change where he or she lives or anything about his or her living arrangements (such as the people the defendant lives with), the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change;

- 7) The defendant shall work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant does not have full-time employment, he or she shall try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant plans to change where the defendant works or anything about his or her employment (such as the position or the job responsibilities), the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change;
- 8) The defendant shall not communicate or interact with someone the defendant knows is engaged in criminal activity. If the defendant knows someone has been convicted of a felony, the defendant shall not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer;

pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013; and, not illegally reenter the United States if deported or allowed voluntary departure.
