1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 (Open Court; Proceedings commenced at 9:30 a.m.)

3 THE BAILIFF: All rise. The 14th District
4 Court is now in session. The Honorable Judge Eric Moyé
5 will be presiding.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, Sheriff.

7 Good morning. You may be seated.

8 MS. DILL: Good morning, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Calling the Court's trial
10 docket, Number 22-03780, Gaurdiola versus Rodriguez.

11 MS. DILL: Sarah Dill for the Defendant,
12 Maricela Rodriguez, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Have you seen or heard from
14 counsel for the Plaintiff, Ms. Dill?

15 MS. DILL: Your Honor, he is -- I've not
16 seen him. He has been on all e-mails to this Court.

17 THE COURT: That's more than I'm asking
18 you.

19 All right. This case is dismissed for
20 want of prosecution. This dismissal is with prejudice
21 as to refiling.

22 You are excused.

23 MS. DILL: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

25 MS. DILL: I do have an order if you like

1 it; it's also been efiled.

2 THE COURT: You're the best. Give it to
3 the Sheriff, please.

4 MS. DILL: Absolutely.

5 (Document handed to the Court.)

6 MS. DILL: Thank you, Judge Moyé. May we
7 be dismissed?

8 THE COURT: Tell me about this suggestion
9 that -- Well, actually this order doesn't do what I want
10 it to do.

11 MS. DILL: Oh, okay.

12 THE COURT: Because I've heard no evidence
13 because the Plaintiff hasn't appeared.

14 So we'll prepare a form of order
15 reflecting the Plaintiff has not appeared and that it is 16 dismissed.

17 MS. DILL: That sounds great, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Have a pleasant day. Thank
19 you very much. You're excused.

20 MS. DILL: Thank you.

Wednesday 9:00 am – 12:00 pm – 101st District Court

Thursday 9:00 am – 12:00 pm – 44th District Court

Friday 9:00 am – 12:00 pm - 160th District Court

Friday Afternoon 1:00 pm – 3:30 pm Prove-up Docket for any participating District Court

INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Judge Craig routinely hears requests for Temporary Restraining Orders (TROs) and Temporary Injunctions (TI). In order to accommodate the judges and attorneys, Judge Craig hears matters every day, morning and evenings, as necessary.

DISCOVERY MOTIONS

Counsel must meaningfully confer on discovery issues and submit a Certificate of Conference that conforms to the Local Rules before any hearing is set.

MOTION DOCKET

The types of hearings referred to an Associate Judge varies from one sitting Judge to another. Upon request, the court clerk will schedule the hearings and the corresponding court coordinator, at the direction of the sitting Judge, will then forward the matter to the Associate Judge for hearing. These hearings will be heard in accordance with the Regular Schedule Motion/Hearing docket indicated above.

TRIALS

Judge Craig is authorized to preside over trials if authorized by the sitting judge, provided that none of the parties object. If the parties in a case would like for Judge Craig to conduct the trial of their matter, they should contact the court coordinator and make a request of the sitting judge.

AUDIO/VISUAL EQUIPMENT IN THE COURTROOM:

Counsel/parties are always welcome to use the courtroom for purposes of preparing for trial, including use of the A/V technology, provided court is not in session. Contact Judge Craig at Rachel.craig@dallascounty.org or call 214-653-6167 to set up a time.

Application for Temporary Restraining Order Showing Appeal Pending

09/27/2024

CAUSE NO. DC-24-17567

OLDA RACHEL GUARDIOLA,
Applicant,

V.

MARICELA RODRIGUEZ,
Respondent.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT

192nd JUDICIAL DISTRICT

DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Comes Now Applicant, Olda Rachel Guardiola, and respectfully asks the Court to enter a temporary restraining order preventing Respondent from evicting Applicant from the property.

1. On November 28, 2023, Applicant filed a lawsuit to determine the ownership rights of the property located at 119 S. Young St., Desoto, Texas in Dallas County.
2. During this proceeding, the case was dismissed without prejudice and then later dismissed with prejudice on a Nunc Pro Tunc order.
3. Applicant has appealed this order and that appeal is pending before the 5th Court of Appeals in case number 05-24-01016-CV. This appeal was properly noticed and perfected.
4. During this litigation, Respondent obtained a Default Order of eviction through Dallas Justice of the Peace Precinct 4 in cause number JPC3211250-41.
5. Under this Default Order, Applicant was noticed yesterday of Respondent's intent to execute on that order today.
6. As the appeal of the District Court's Order of Dismissal is still pending, title to the home has not been adjudicated and Applicant has been in possession of the home with her children since July 7, 2011. Since title has not been adjudicated the eviction is premature as a matter of law.
7. Irreparable harm will befall Applicant if the temporary restraining order is not granted.

8. The applicant is seeking permanent relief pending the appeal and subsequent decision of the district court case on the merits.

9. There is a probable right to relief in that she purchased the home on a rent to own contract. She completed the contract by paying $130,000.00, even though the agreement was for $90,000.00.

10. There is imminent injury in that she will be required to move from the home she has paid for. All her and her family's possessions will have to be moved out of a home in which the respondent has no possessory rights.

11. The temporary restraining order should be made permanent until ownership rights have been finally decided.

12. Due to the exigent nature of the harm and the inability to notice and set a hearing on this matter due to the imminent irreparable harm that may result if this Order is not Granted, Applicant requests that the Court hear this application under ex parte procedure and set the matter for hearing on restraining the eviction until a final decision on the right to title of the property.

For the reasons stated herein, Applicant respectfully ask the Court to Grant a temporary ex parte restraining order preventing the imminent execution of the Justice of the Peace eviction, set an evidentiary hearing on a restraining order to remain in place until the final disposition of the appeal and district court case regarding the property, and any other relief that the Applicant is entitled to in law or equity.

Respectfully submitted,

Trial Court Case Number: DC-24-17567

Style: Olda Rachel Guardiola
v. Maricela Rodriguez

The Court has determined that oral argument will not significantly aid it in determining the legal and factual issues presented in the appeal. Accordingly, the appeal will be submitted without oral argument on January 6, 2026 to a panel consisting of Justice Clinton, Justice Lewis and Justice Rossini subject to change by the Court. See Tex. Re: 202503316 - Olda Rachel Guardiola - Gary Warren Sibley

Dear Olda Rachel Guardiola:

Please be advised that the above-referenced attorney no longer has a license to practice law as a result of other disciplinary proceedings. As the grievance system only has jurisdiction over licensed Texas attorneys, your matter has been closed. This does not mean that your grievance was without merit. It simply means that the State Bar no longer has authority to act. You should consider consulting a private attorney regarding other legal remedies, if any.

A copy of your grievance has been placed in the attorney's disciplinary file for future consideration in the event the lawyer seeks reinstatement to the practice of law.

Enclosed you will find information regarding the Client Security Fund. The Fund compensates clients of attorneys who have stolen client funds or failed to refund an unearned fee. To learn if you are eligible, call 1-877-953-5535.

Please know that the Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel maintains confidentiality in the grievance process as directed by the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure.

Sincerely,

Subject: RE: Case No. 202503316 - Notice of Grievance by Olida Rachel Guardiola
Date: Thursday, May 29, 2025 12:41:43 PM

Most of what she said is true. I represented her from March 14, 2022 up until I could not practice law. I told her I had retired and she needed to find new counsel. I send a demand letter on March 14, she paid $2,500 on March 17, and an engagement agreement the same day. That is the only money she ever gave me .I don't believe she even paid the filing fee, but I could be wrong. I will forward the engagement letter to you. to you. As it states, the $2,500 was for drafting the petition, the discovery, paralegal and secretarial time postage and copies, and any and all negotiations prior to trial. March 23 I got an audio recording from Rachel and we talked about it. She sent a translation of the recording on March 27. April 6, 2022 the Petition was filed in DC 22-03780. Discovery was sent and on June 3, 2023 the case was continued and a proposed order sent to the court which was subsequently signed. Got into an argument with opposing counsel about the mediator around the same time. The case was inadvertently DWOP'ed. A motion to reinstate was filed on June 27, 2023 and signed July 14, 2023. An eviction notice was served on Rachel with a hearing date of December 6. No eviction because title dispute in District Court not final. 18 emails about mediator and mediation date.

Motion to dismiss filed by Defendant. Response filed May 30, 2024. Case transferred from 68th to 14th on May 30, 2024. Order granting dismissal signed, but was not with prejudice. Court then signed a nunc pro tunc order with prejudice. Appeal taken. Transcript ordered and received for hearings on June 27, and August 14, 2024. Notice of withdrawal filed with 5th court of appeals on May 6, 2025. I told her I could not represent her. Even if I was not suspended I could not have represented her. My license and driving privileges had been taken away in November 2024 because of my deteriorating mental condition and I cannot hold a train of thought nor do I have a short term memory...although some days are better than others.

This timeline is provided pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 14.1(g) to assist the Court in understanding the sequence of events relevant to the constitutional issues presented.

Summary of Procedural Breakdown

This case reflects a complete collapse of procedural safeguards:

- a judicial ruling rewritten months later through a post-jurisdiction nunc pro tunc;
- a recordless remote hearing caused by county policy;
- an eviction executed during an active appeal;
- dismissals without required notice; and
- attorney abandonment by counsel who had lost his license and later admitted cognitive impairment.

Together, these failures eliminated any meaningful opportunity for appellate review, placing at stake the core guarantees of due process and access to justice.

I. Underlying Title Litigation & Early Judicial Error (2022–2023)

March 14, 2022 – Petitioner retains attorney Gary Sibley to pursue title to 119 S. Young Blvd., DeSoto.

April 6, 2022 – First district-court action filed (Cause No. DC-22-03780).

October 3, 2023 – At a trial-setting hearing, the court dismisses the case. The transcript shows the judge immediately recognized the order “does not do what I want it to do,” confirming the dismissal was without prejudice and the mistake was judicial, not clerical. (App. A.)

November 28, 2023 – Second action filed for title and damages (Cause No. DC-23-19848).

II. Post-Jurisdiction Nunc Pro Tunc Misuse (2024)

June 27, 2024 – Without notice to Petitioner, the court grants Respondent's motion and signs a nunc pro tunc converting the dismissal to “with prejudice.”

The order adds factual findings never stated by the judge (“second dismissal,” “day of trial,” “notice and opportunity to be heard”). (App. J.)

These inserted findings do not appear anywhere in the October 3 transcript, confirming the nunc pro tunc was not a clerical correction but a new judicial ruling entered after jurisdiction expired. (App. I.)

Because plenary power expired months earlier, the nunc pro tunc was jurisdictionally void.

Petitioner did not learn of this order until the appellate stage.

III. Eviction Threat & TRO Proceedings (Fall 2024)

September 25, 2024 – Petitioner receives notice of eviction. (App. A.)

September 27, 2024 – Petitioner files application for TRO. (App. A.)

September 30, 2024 – TRO granted, preserving possession pending hearing.

IV. Recordless Remote Hearing & Immediate Eviction

October 14, 2024 – Remote TRO-dissolution hearing held via Zoom.

Dallas County provides no court reporter for remote/associate-judge hearings and requires litigants to privately hire and pay for one. (App. C.)

Result: no transcript exists.

October 15, 2024 – Eviction executed the next day, despite the related appeal already pending. The lack of a record makes review impossible. (App. B.)

V. Reconsideration Motions & DWOP Without Notice

October 16, 2024 – Motion to reconsider filed.

November 1, 2024 – Respondent files opposition.

November 15, 2024 – Petitioner appears for scheduled hearing; she is told it was canceled without notice.

Later that day, the court enters a DWOP:

- without notice,
- without a hearing,
- and despite the pending motion to reconsider. (App. H.)

Petitioner files a timely Notice of Appeal the same day. (App. D.)

VI. Collapse of Representation & Attorney Abandonment (2025)

January 2025 – Counsel fails to file appellate documents.

February 2025 – Petitioner discovers counsel is not licensed and files a grievance with the State Bar of Texas.

May 6, 2025 – Counsel files motion to withdraw.

May 29, 2025 – Counsel emails Petitioner admitting severe memory loss, cognitive decline, inability to attend hearings, and that the nunc-pro-tunc confusion stemmed from the court's own judicial error. (App. G.)

This establishes complete abandonment during critical stages.

June 2024 – Counsel sends an email instructing Petitioner not to communicate with the court, stating “Dammit Rachel you can’t do that! I told you to let me handle it! The judge will be mad at me!” (App. H). This interference prevented Petitioner from protecting her rights during the period of abandonment.

VII. State Bar Confirmation

October 27, 2025 – Texas State Bar confirms counsel is no longer licensed and that dismissal “does not mean your grievance was without merit.” (App. F.)

VIII. Continuing Prejudice & Ongoing Appeal

January 6, 2026 – Fifth Court of Appeals resets the non-jury trial on Petitioner’s eviction appeal, confirming the case is active and not moot. (App. D.)

NUNC PRO TUNC ORDER CORRECTING ORDER

Upon consideration of Defendant Maricela Rodriguez's Nunc Pro Tunc motion requesting correction of a clerical error, heard by this Court on June 27, 2024, this Court finds that a clerical error exists in the Order of Dismissal for Want of Prosecution issued by this Court on October 3, 2023. Such order is corrected by striking the following:

"This Matter was set for trial on October 3, 2023. Plaintiff failed to announce or appear, and after notice and opportunity to be heard this date, the Court finds that this case should be dismissed as to the remaining defendants. This is the second dismissal on day of trial due to non-appearance by the Plaintiff. All previous orders entered pertaining to served defendants are final. Costs are taxes against plaintiff(s), for which let execution issue."

And by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"This Matter was set for trial on October 3, 2023. Plaintiff failed to announce or appear, and after notice and opportunity to be heard this date, the Court finds that this case should be dismissed with prejudice as to the remaining defendants. This is the second dismissal on day of trial due to non-appearance by the Plaintiff. All previous orders entered pertaining to served defendants are final. Costs are taxes against plaintiff(s), for which let execution issue."

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SIGNED ON June 28, 2024.

I'm here in the court | wanted to drop off pictures and receipts so they Judge could see them.

They told me you'll have to do that

Is there anything you can see that I can persuade him to leave out? I have the dockets

Let me know what I can do

God bless you,
