SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years.

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994:

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the probation officer.

The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device or any other dangerous weapon.

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Fine and Restitution sheet of the judgment.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). The defendant shall also comply with the additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer.
- 2) The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
- 3) The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
- 4) The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities.
- 5) The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
- 6) The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment.
- 7) The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
- 8) The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.
- 9) The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
- 10) The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
- 11) The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
- 12) The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.
- 13) As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi
USDC No. 3:24-CR-69-1

Before DAVIS, JONES, and HO, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Andre Lamont Rawls was sentenced to 151 months in prison and five years of supervised release after he pleaded guilty to conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and to distribute a controlled substance. While he was on supervision for the underlying offense, Rawls pleaded guilty to a cocaine conspiracy charge. The district court revoked his term of supervised release on the underlying conviction, imposed a 60-month sentence, and ordered it to run consecutively to the 110-month sentence imposed for the conviction on the new conspiracy offense.

No. 25-60316

Rawls argues that the district court erred by ordering his revocation sentence to run consecutively to the sentence imposed on his new conspiracy conviction, emphasizing that the district court in the new criminal case ordered that the sentence imposed on that conviction run concurrently with any sentence to be imposed upon revocation. Rawls acknowledges that his challenge to his sentence is likely foreclosed but raises the issue to preserve it for future appellate review. See United States v. Ochoa, 977 F.3d 354, 356 (5th Cir. 2020). We review for abuse of discretion. See United States v. Reyes-Lugo, 238 F.3d 305, 307-08 (5th Cir. 2001); see also Ochoa, 977 F.3d at 356.

The district court did not commit error in ordering consecutive sentences. We have recognized that “one district court has no authority to instruct another district court how, for a different offense in a different case, it must construct its sentence.” United States v. Quintana-Gomez, 521 F.3d 495, 498 (5th Cir. 2008); see 18 U.S.C. § 3584(a).

Accordingly, Rawls’s sentence is AFFIRMED.
