I. PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Kyuhwan Hwang petitions the Court for a writ of certiorari to review the judgment (“opinion”) of the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee and other lower courts.

II. OPINIONS BELOW

The opinion of the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee is attached in the appendix.

The petitioner does not have the information whether the opinion of the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee is reported or unpublished. Therefore, the petitioner does not have the information about the citation.

III. CITATIONS

The petitioner does not have the information in terms of “Citations” (Rule 14.1(d)), “Citations of the official and unofficial reports of the opinions and orders entered in the case by courts or administrative agencies.” However, the opinion of the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee is attached in the appendix.

IV. JURISDICTION

The judgment of the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee was entered or filed on or about September 10, 2025 (09/10/2025). A petition for rehearing was NOT filed. (Such petition could not be filed because of the constant crime or/and ‘probable causes’ which continued to exist in this case.) This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1257(a). This petition is filed within 90 days of the entry of judgment, as required by Supreme Court Rule 13. This petition is NOT filed under this Court's Rule 11. In terms of Rule 14.1(e)(v), the petitioner makes his statement that the notifications required by Rule 29.4(b) or (c) have NOT been made. The petitioner has no issues in terms of Rule 29.4(b). However, the petitioner has issues in terms of Rule 29.4(c). However, the petitioner has not been in a situation to raise issues because of the alleged constant crime and its circumstances. Therefore, such notifications had NOT been made by the petitioner.

V. CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

This case is about justice, law, the rule of law, the constitutional rights, and the protection of such constitutional rights of individuals in the United States. Here are some of the essential parts hereinafter.

Statutes

18 U.S.C. § 241:

If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same; or If two or more persons go in disguise on the highway, or on the premises of another, with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege so secured— They shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, they shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.

Constitutional Provisions

Preamble to the U.S. Constitution:

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

U.S. Const. amend. VII:

In Suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise reexamined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

VI. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This case arises from a civil action alleging the petitioner had a car accident which happened on October 5, 2019 (10/05/2019). The civil complaint was filed on October 1, 2020 (10/01/2020). The opinion of the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee was filed on September 10, 2025 (09/10/2025). This case was adjudicated in five (5) lower courts. However, the petitioner could not have a fair opportunity to prosecute his case not because of the lack of his will and efforts but because of the hybrid crime and judicial crime. The petitioner alleges that there have been, in this case from 2019 to 2025, constant crime, white-collar crime, physical crime, litigation crime, litigation interferences, and so on. The petitioner alleges that this case and the decision below raises nationwide important questions of the Constitution of the United States, Federal laws, and the protection of the constitutional rights of such victims (including the petitioner) that warrant this Court's review.

VII. REASONS FOR GRANTING THE WRIT

This case presents an important federal question that should be settled by this Court. Hybrid crime and judicial crime produce the failure of the function of the rule of law. It is extremely serious problem in the United States. This matter has great importance nationwide. Transportation, automobiles, and insurance are indispensable in the American way of life. When and where such victims including the petitioner cannot perform their constitutional rights because of the hybrid crime and judicial crime, and because of the failure of the function of the rule of law, the lofty ideals of the Constitution of the United States collapses disastrously or grisly. If such matters including this case are not dealt with by the Supreme Court of the United States, such wretchedness will continue to exist and prevail in the United States. Therefore, we need to resolve this once and for all.

VIII. CONCLUSION AND PRAYER FOR RELIEF

1. For the reasons stated above, the petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.
2. If it is not granted, the petitioner request the Court to “hibernate” this case for ten (10) years or such time. During the hibernation, the enforcement of this case will be stayed and the petitioner will perform investigative journalism and other special activities in order to collect and present additional evidence in terms of such alleged hybrid crime and judicial crime even though there are already existing evidence.
