Clerk of the Court
Supreme Court of the United States

Re: County of Fulton, Pennsylvania et al v. Dominion Voting Systems, Inc. et al.
S. Ct. No. 25-704

Dear Mr. Harris:

We serve as counsel for Respondents Dominion Voting Systems, Inc. and U.S. Dominion, Inc. (now known as Liberty Vote USA, Inc., and Liberty Vote Holdings, Inc., respectively) in the above referenced matter.¹ Petitioner's filed their Petition for Writ of Certiorari on December 15, 2025 ("Petition"), after seeking and obtaining a thirty-day time extension from the Court. Respondents' response is currently due on January 16, 2026. Pursuant to Rule 30.4, Respondents respectfully request that the time for filing a response be extended by thirty days. Because a thirty-day extension of time would make Respondents' brief due on Sunday, February 15, 2026, Respondents respectfully request a due date of February 16, 2026.

This is Respondents' first request for an extension of time. Good cause exists for the extension. Respondents were recently acquired, and consequently, additional time is necessary for new ownership to familiarize itself with the legal issues involved. In addition, Respondents' counsel has numerous other professional obligations that will require substantial time in the coming weeks, while also attending to personal obligations associated with the intervening holidays. An extension of time would better enable preparation of a response that would be most helpful to the Court. There are no circumstances that necessitate a speedy ruling on the Petition.

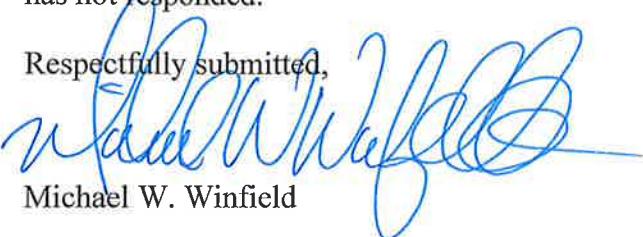

¹I am currently not a member of the Supreme Court of the United States Bar, although my co-counsel Paul A. Logan is. I am preparing an application for admission to be filed in advance of the response to the Petition for Writ of Certiorari.

Accordingly, Respondents request a thirty-day time extension of time, to and including February 16, 2026, to file its brief in opposition to the Petition. Before writing this letter, I reached out by email to Petitioner's counsel to advise of this request, and to seek his response. Petitioner's counsel has not responded.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael W. Winfield
