UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS

FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT

MOLLY C. DWYER, CLERK
U.S. COURT OF APPEALS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff - Appellee,

v.

JUAN JESUS CHAIDEZ,

Defendant - Appellant.

No. 25-1266

D.C. No.

4:21-cr-00377-JSW-1

MEMORANDUM*

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of California
Jeffrey S. White, District Judge, Presiding

Submitted December 1, 2025
San Francisco, California

Before: RAWLINSON and SANCHEZ, Circuit Judges, and ZIPPS, Chief District Judge.

Appellant Juan Jesus Chaidez appeals the district court's judgment revoking his supervised release and imposing a 24-month custodial sentence. We affirm.

* This disposition is not appropriate for publication and is not precedent except as provided by Ninth Circuit Rule 36-3.

 The panel unanimously concludes this case is suitable for decision without oral argument. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a)(2).

 The Honorable Jennifer G. Zipps, United States Chief District Judge for the District of Arizona, sitting by designation.

1. Under de novo review, we find that Chaidez’s due process right to confront Doe was not violated by the admission of Doe’s statements at the revocation proceeding. See United States v. Perez, 526 F.3d 543, 547 (9th Cir. 2008). We apply a balancing test to determine whether a releasee had a right to confrontation, weighing his interest in confronting the witness with the government’s good cause for failing to procure her. See United States v. Comito, 177 F.3d 1166, 1170–72 (9th Cir. 1999).

2. The district court properly found good cause for Doe’s absence as a witness and that her absence stemmed from genuine fear rather than governmental neglect. See United States v. Hall, 419 F.3d 980, 988 n.6 (9th Cir. 2005). The probation officer personally served Doe with multiple subpoenas and attempted several follow-ups. After the assault, Doe sought two restraining orders against Chaidez, changed residences, refused to provide her new address, and would meet the probation officer only in public locations. She repeatedly expressed fear of Chaidez and told Officer Tinoco she felt threatened by the letters he sent her from jail, including one implying she should not testify. As the district court found, although the letters were not overtly threatening, their tone, number, and timing showed Chaidez’s fixation on the relationship and corroborated the sincerity of Doe’s fear. The probation officer’s remarks that a warrant was unlikely to issue if Doe ignored the subpoena did not undermine the government’s documented efforts or the strong evidence of Doe's fear.

3. Although Doe's statements were "important to the finding of the violation," Comito, 177 F.3d at 1171, Chaidez's confrontation interest was lessened by the reliability of the evidence, see Hall, 419 F.3d at 987–88. Doe's 911 call and her statements recorded on the officers' body-worn cameras were made shortly after the assault, while she was visibly injured, crying, and distraught. Such statements qualify as excited utterances under Federal Rule of Evidence 803(2), a firmly rooted hearsay exception which necessarily "satisf[ies] the lesser standard of due process accorded the [defendant] in a revocation proceeding." See id. at 987. Doe's statements were further corroborated by photographs, body-worn camera footage, and officer testimony. Accordingly, the district court properly concluded that Doe's statements bore strong indicia of reliability.

4. Balancing Chaidez's confrontation interest against the government's showing of good cause for Doe's absence and the reliability of the evidence, the district court correctly found Doe's statements admissible.

AFFIRMED.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: 12 months

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
- 2) You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
- 3) You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
- 4) You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
- 5) You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
- 6) You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
- 7) You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Juan Jesus Chaidez
CASE NUMBER: CR-21-00377-001 JSW

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of RELEASE, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
 - 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
 - 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
 - 4) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
 - 5) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
 - 6) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with, for example), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
 - 7) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by these and the special conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
 - 8) You must work at least part-time (defined as 20 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment unless excused from doing so by the probation officer for schooling, training, community service or other acceptable activities. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
 - 9) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. You must not associate, communicate, or interact with any person you know has been convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
 - 10) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
 - 11) You must not act as a confidential informant without first notifying the probation officer.
 - 12) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to a third party, the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk. (check if applicable)

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Prior Conditions

1. You must participate in vocational training as directed by the probation officer.
2. You must pay any special assessment that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.
3. You must participate in a mental health treatment program, as directed by the probation officer. You are to pay part or all cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments must never exceed the total cost of mental health counseling. The actual co-payment schedule must be determined by the probation officer.
4. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
5. You must submit your person, residence, office, vehicle, electronic devices and their data (including cell phones, computers, and electronic storage media), or any property under your control to a search. Such a search must be conducted by a United States Probation Officer or any federal, state or local law enforcement officer at any time with or without suspicion. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. You must warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
6. You must participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug abuse, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as you are released from treatment by the probation officer. You are to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments must never exceed the total cost of urinalysis and counseling. The actual co-payment schedule must be determined by the probation officer.
7. You must abstain from the use of all alcoholic beverages.
