Clerk

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff—Appellee,

versus

QUINTELL DEWAYNE GLADNEY,

Defendant—Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana
USDC No. 5:22-CR-214-1

Before RICHMAN, SOUTHWICK, and WILLETT, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Quintell Dewayne Gladney pled guilty to possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime, and he was sentenced as a career offender under U.S.S.G. § 4B1.1 to 262 months of imprisonment. On appeal, he argues the district court erroneously relied solely on the presentence report (PSR) to characterize his prior drug convictions under Louisiana

* This opinion is not designated for publication. See 5TH CIR. R. 47.5.

No. 25-30162

Statutes Annotated § 40:967(A) for purposes of the career offender guideline. He also maintains that those prior convictions, which involved cocaine distribution, cannot serve as predicate controlled-substance offenses because the Louisiana definition of cocaine and related substances previously encompassed Ioflupane while its federal counterpart currently does not.

Although Gladney raised a policy-based objection to the career offender designation in the district court, that objection did not afford the district court an opportunity to correct the errors he now raises on appeal. See United States v. Guerrero-Robledo, 565 F.3d 940, 946 (5th Cir. 2009). Accordingly, we review his claims for plain error. See id. To prevail under that standard, Gladney must show an error that is clear or obvious. See United States v. Hinojosa, 749 F.3d 407, 411 (5th Cir. 2014).

First, it is not clear or obvious that the district court erred by solely relying on the characterization of the prior offenses in the PSR, given that the district court apparently had the underlying conviction documents in its possession, the revised PSR's description was expressly based on those same documents, and in any event, the district court had the benefit of Gladney's own characterization of his convictions as controlled substance offenses. See United States v. Jenkins, 487 F.3d 279, 281 (5th Cir. 2007). As for Gladney's argument that those prior Louisiana convictions do not constitute predicate offenses for purposes of the career offender guideline because the Louisiana definition of cocaine and related substances encompassed Ioflupane, any error is not clear or obvious because he has not shown a realistic probability that Louisiana would prosecute someone for distributing Ioflupane or established that he is not required to make that showing. See United States v. Castillo-Rivera, 853 F.3d 218, 222-23 (5th Cir. 2017) (en banc).

Accordingly, the district court's judgment is AFFIRMED.

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of: 262 months as to count 3. On May 26, 2020, the defendant was arrested on charges related to the instant offense and booked into the Caddo Correctional Center. On September 15, 2022, a Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Prosequendum was issued. On October 3, 2022, defendant appeared in Federal Court for an initial appearance and arraignment. The defendant was remanded to the custody of the U.S. Marshals Service, where he has remained. The Court notes the potential of "anticipated state sentences" in the First Judicial District Court in Shreveport, Louisiana, under Docket No. 375985, that represent relevant conduct. Pursuant to USSG §5G1.3(c), it is the Order of the Court that these sentences shall run concurrently with any state sentences imposed in the matter from the First Judicial District Court, Caddo Parish, Louisiana. The Court notes the potential of an anticipated revocation sentences in the Twenty Sixth Judicial District Court for Bossier Parish, Louisiana, under Docket Nos.: 166727 and 174756 that do not represent relevant conduct. Pursuant to USSG §5G1.3(d) and 18 U.S.C. §3584, it is the Order of the Court that this sentence shall run consecutively with any revocation sentence imposed in these matters. Should defendant be entitled to credit for any of the time he has already spent in custody, the Federal Bureau of Prisons will make that determination.

- ☒ The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons: It is the recommendation of the Court that the defendant be allowed to participate in the RDAP program or any other available drug treatment programs, and be designated to a facility as close to his home in Shreveport as possible.
☒ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
☐ The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:
☐ at _____ ☐ a.m. ☐ p.m. on _____
☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.
☐ The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:
☐ before 2 p.m. on _____
☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.
☐ as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of : five (5) years

MANDATORY CONDITIONS (MC)

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
4. The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court’s determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
5. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
6. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
7. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
8. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
9. The passport restriction imposed at the time of initial release is hereby suspended, and defendant’s passport is ordered released to defendant’s attorney. (check if applicable)
10. The passport restriction imposed at the time of initial release is continued, and defendant’s passport is ordered transferred to the U. S. Department of State. (check if applicable)
11. You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as any other conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION (SC)

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U. S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions.
