NO. _____

Eddie Scott Petitioner

v.

Crystal Blanton ET. AL Respondents

Writ of Certiorari Before Judgment

In The United States Court of Appeals Eleventh Circuit

Pro se petitioner Eddie Scott asks this honorable court to file leave for In forma pauperis without cost. The petitioner was acquitted after a state trial versus the State of Florida on 8/1/2024. The District Court for the Middle District of Florida dismissed the petitioners' preliminary injunction and habeas corpus complaint without a hearing on 5/13/2024, thereby forcing the petitioner to suffer irreparable harm at a state trial, facing over forty years in Florida state prison if convicted. After being acquitted, the petitioner was barred again by the District Court on 8/30/2024, citing federal rule of civil procedure 60(b). The tool that was misapplied by the District Court was the Younger doctrine for both dismissals. The petitioner would ask the court to grant the writ of certiorari before judgment to answer some imperative questions of public importance.

The affidavit in support is attached hereto:

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to gather relevant information and data.

3. After gathering information, the next step is to analyze the data and identify the root cause of the problem.

4. Once the root cause is identified, the next step is to develop a plan of action to address the problem.

5. The final step in the process is to implement the plan and monitor the results to ensure the problem is resolved.

6. It is important to document the entire process and the results of the analysis and implementation.

7. The process should be reviewed regularly to ensure it remains effective and up-to-date.

8. The process should be communicated to all relevant stakeholders to ensure everyone is aware of the problem and the solution.

9. The process should be flexible and adaptable to changes in the problem or the environment.

10. The process should be a continuous cycle of improvement, with regular reviews and updates.

11. The process should be supported by appropriate resources and tools.

12. The process should be a collaborative effort involving all relevant stakeholders.

13. The process should be a proactive approach to problem-solving, rather than a reactive one.

14. The process should be a key component of the organization's overall strategy and culture.

15. The process should be a continuous learning experience for all involved.

16. The process should be a key factor in the organization's success and growth.

17. The process should be a key element of the organization's risk management strategy.

18. The process should be a key part of the organization's quality management system.

19. The process should be a key part of the organization's innovation and development strategy.
