APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO COMPLY

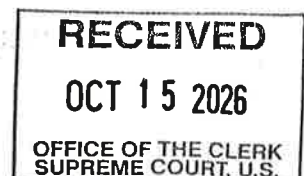

WITH THE COURT'S OCTOBER 5, 2026 ORDER

To the Honorable Brett M. Kavanaugh, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and Circuit Justice for the Sixth Circuit:

Petitioner Elbony Weatherspoon, proceeding pro se, respectfully applies for a 45-day extension of time, through December 10, 2026, to comply with this Court's October 5, 2026 order in No. 25-7518.

1. On October 5, 2026, this Court denied Petitioner's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and allowed Petitioner until October 26, 2026, to pay the docketing fee required by Rule 38(a) and to submit a petition complying with Rule 33.1.

2. Petitioner respectfully requests an additional 45 days, through December 10, 2026, to complete both requirements.

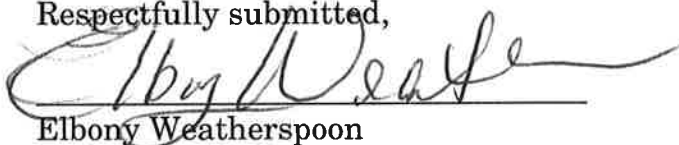

3. Good cause exists for the requested extension. Petitioner is proceeding without counsel and must arrange specialized professional printing and binding for the Rule 33.1 booklet format, including the required copies, while also arranging payment of the docketing fee and service on the respondents.

4. Petitioner has been actively working to comply with the Court's order. The petition has been revised and prepared for Rule 33.1 formatting, but additional time is needed because compliance now requires both the $300 docketing fee and specialized professional printing and binding of the Rule 33.1 booklet copies required by the Court. Petitioner must accumulate the funds necessary to pay those costs and then arrange compliant production, delivery, and service without risking a technical filing defect.

5. This application is being filed before the October 26, 2026 compliance deadline. Petitioner seeks only the additional time reasonably necessary to complete the Court-ordered paid filing requirements.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that the time to comply with the Court's October 5, 2026 order be extended for 45 days, from October 26, 2026 through December 10, 2026.

Respectfully submitted,

Elbony Weatherspoon
