Re: Lowery v. Mills, et al., No. 25-927

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for the Respondents in the above-captioned case. The current due date for Respondents' brief in opposition to the petition for writ of certiorari is April 23, 2026. Pursuant to Rule 30.4 of the Rules of the Supreme Court, all Respondents respectfully request an extension of time of 30 days, to and including May 26, 2026 (May 25th being a federal legal holiday), for the filing of their brief in opposition.

The additional time requested is necessary to allow Respondents' counsel sufficient time to prepare a thorough and helpful submission to the Court in response to the petition and supporting amicus briefs, and to accommodate counsel's pending obligations in other cases.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey L. Oldham

Counsel for Respondents Lillian Mills, in her official capacity; Ethan Burris, in his official capacity; Clemens Sialm, in his official capacity; and James E. Davis, in his official capacity
