Application for an Extension of Time to Fulfill Court Order

Petitioner, Marvin Bowman, Pro Se, is reaching out to the court to seek a extension of time for which he has to complete the court action detailed in the March 9, 2026 letter. The reasons for the extension are as follows:

Purpose of Application

1. The Petitioner only received the letter a few days ago due to the fact he receives communications by US Mail.
2. Trying to find the materials necessary to complete the task has been difficult within the environment where the Petitioner is located. (Rule 33.1)
3. The holiday season is about to occur at the beginning of April 2026.
4. The Petitioner is a Pro se litigant and has to present and defend his own case while working a full time career.
5. In addition, at work there is about to be very important standardized testing for the students at the beginning half of April 2026.
6. The Petitioner has another important court date to prepare for occurring at approximately the same. ( Exhibit 1)
7. The Petitioner is battling a case of influenza “ the flu”, while trying to complete these task.
8. The Petitioner is requesting three weeks to complete the task or until April 20, 2026.
9. The Petitioner did ask the respondents if they objected to an extension but had not heard from them yet.

For the foregoing reasons, the Petitioner is asking for an extension to the amount of time he has to turn in the court ordered documents and any other relief the court deems necessary.

Respectfully submitted by,
