

No. _____

IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

EDWARD BINGHAM — PETITIONER

VS.

STATE OF NEW MEXICO — RESPONDENT(S)

PETITIONER'S MOTION REQUESTING PERMISSION TO EXCEED THE PAGE LIMIT DESCRIBED IN RULE 33.2(b)

COMES Now, Petitioner, Edward Bingham, to respectfully request for this Honorable Court to grant Petitioner permission to exceed the allowable page limit for filing a petition for a writ of certiorari. As grounds to support this request, Petitioner provides the following:

Petitioner is indigent and incarcerated at Otero County Prison Facility in New Mexico.

Petitioner is proceeding in Forma Pauperis and is appearing pro se.

The petition for writ of certiorari was completed on May 20, 2025 and was postmarked on May 22, 2025.

This Court received the petition on May 28, 2025.

However, the petition was returned to Petitioner in order to allow for certain corrections to be made. Specifically, this Court requested for the petition to be edited in order for it to comply with the page limit described in Rule 33.2(b).

Rule 33.2(b) mandates that the page limit for filing a petition for writ of certiorari to this Court is 40 pages.

The petition is handwritten and is 122 pages.

Petitioner does not have access to computers or typewriters for preparing legal documents or for editing the petition.

Therefore, the process for editing the petition will be in handwriting only.

Though Petitioner is currently editing the petition, it is not possible reduce the number of pages to below 40 pages without removing crucial information.

The only reason that the edited petition will exceed the 40 page limit is because it will be handwritten. — In other words, it is impossible to handwrite the document in 14 font without the benefit of a computer or typewriter.

As a result, Petitioner is unable to handwrite small enough to include all necessary information to compel this Court to issue a writ of certiorari, while also abiding by the 40 page limit outlined in Rule 33.2(b).

It is important to note that the petition will still comply with the 9,000 word limit described in Rule 33.1(g)(i).

Because Petitioner is proceeding In Forma Pauperis under Supreme Court Rule 39, the Clerk of the Court is permitted to file the petition for writ of certiorari even if it does not comply with Rule 33.2(b) if preparation under the rule is impossible (such as in this case). See Rule 39.3 (stating "every document presented under this Rule shall be prepared as required by Rule 33.2 (unless such preparation is impossible).")

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, because Petitioner is proceeding In Forma Pauperis and appearing pro se and does not have access to a computer or type-

Writer for preparing a petition for writ of certiorari (due to incarceration) he respectfully requests for this Honorable Court to apply Supreme Court Rule 39.3 by allowing him to exceed the page limit described in Supreme Court Rule 33.2 (b) as long as the petition complies with the 9,000 word limit described in Supreme Court Rule 33.1(g)(i).

Bingham
